

ARGENTINA CIVIL CODE

Art. 50

When an association with legal capacity has been dissolved or ended, the goods and shares that belonged to it will be taken care of in accordance with its statutes; and if nothing was stipulated in them, the goods and shares will be considered vacant, and will be applied to the objects provided by the Legislative Body, except any harm to a third party or to the existing members of the company.