

CROATIA LAW ON ASSOCIATIONS

Article 39

(1) A fine of at least 1.000,00 but not exceeding 10.000,00 kunas shall be imposed on the association which:

1. does not keep record of its members (Article 4 paragraph 3),
2. performs activities that do not serve the realization of its statutory goals (Article 5 paragraph 1),
3. does not use its name and abbreviated name in the form and content entered into registry book (Article 12 paragraphs 6 and 7),
4. act in legal transactions in accordance with the changes and use the changed data before they have been entered into the register book of the associations (Article 19 paragraph 5).

(2) A fine between 500.00 and 5.000.00 shall be imposed on the legal representative for the offences from paragraph 1 of this Article.

Article 5

(1) An association may from the moment of its establishment perform those activities that serve the realization of its statutory goals.

Article 4

- (1) Any natural and legal person with capacity to act may, under the same conditions established by this Law and the statute of the association, become a member of an association.
- (2) Persons with or without limited capacity to act may become members of an association without decision-making power in the association's bodies. The manner in which they may participate in the work of the association's bodies shall be prescribed by the statute of the association.
- (3) An association shall keep a record of its members.

Article 12

- (6) An association shall use its name and abbreviated name in the form and content entered into the registry book.
- (7) If the name or abbreviated name translated into a foreign language is entered in the registry book, along with the name and abbreviated name in the official language, an association may use its name or abbreviated name in the foreign language only together with the name or abbreviated name in the official language.

Article 19

- (5) The association shall not act in legal transactions in accordance with the changes and shall not use the changed data from paragraph 1 of this Article before they are entered into the registry book of the associations.